President Biden,

During your visit to the Palmetto State on Thursday, July 6, I would like to invite you to join me in touring South Carolina's beautiful Third Congressional District as I meet with constituents face-to-face.

The constituents of South Carolina's Third District, as well as myself, would appreciate the opportunity to ask you directly why the administration continually infringes on our constitutional liberties, does not secure the southern border, fails to protect the innocence of children, absconds from its duty to put American interests first, obstructs unleashing domestic energy production and economic growth, and refuses to curb inflationary spending. My constituents' questions on why you permit an invasion at our southern border, continually jeopardize our energy security and national security, and actively seek to redistribute their earnings to pay off the debts of college students who do not pay for their debts deserve straight-forward answers.

The small business owners, first responders, health care workers, veterans, seniors, and the struggling moms and dads of my District would appreciate the opportunity to relay to you how they are being crushed under the weight of your out-of-touch policies and out-of-control spending that fuel inflation and high energy costs. Given the fact that you spend most of your time vacationing in Delaware or meeting with Left-wing special interest groups in Washington, D.C., it would be beneficial for you to meet with South Carolinians to see how real Americans are impacted by your radical, America-last agenda.

Thank you, and we look forward to your reply.

Blessings and Liberty,

Jeff Duncan
Member of Congress
